

Bespoke Weddings

At the Alicia we have assembled a team of dedicated wedding professionals, With a wealth of experience and knowledge both organising and running weddings. We are passionate about providing excellent attention to detail in the service and the quality of food to your guests. This is what our clients remember, not so much the colour of our luxurious carpets or curtains.

Unlike many other hotels at the Alicia you will have complete access to the management team who will be here to help and guide you when organising your wonderful day. Or If you don't want to sort anything yourselves our team will be more than happy to organise things from chair covers to flowers and Singers to Casino's.

Another important point is that we will only ever do one wedding reception per day so the hotel is yours for the day. You are not fighting for space in the grounds with other Bridal parties and it means that our full attention is focused on you and your guests.

Your Options

We have landscaped our garden into a delightful Italian courtyard that has a large granite gazebo in the centre and boasts a civil wedding license.
